	CBC has a Duty to Cooperate Requirement - National legislation requires them to cooperate across boundaries. Neighbouring Councils (Stevenage, Milton Keynes, Bedford, Luton, Hemel Hempstead and St Albans) /other organisations, cross-boundary and strategic matters. Other Local Plans may affect CBC by asking CBC to accommodate some of their growth. Shared Housing Market Areas. What will be in the draft Local Plan? Preferred strategy for growth for consultation. Suite of up to date policies which will guide new development reflecting the latest national guidance and legislation. Range of broad locations for new homes and jobs. Proposals informed by new transport infrastructure. Environmental enhancement and protection. How many new homes? CBC needs between 28,000 – 32,000 dwellings over the period 2015 – 35. CBC has already built and given permission for around 25,000 of these. But unmet need from neighbouring authorities will add to our target. This means Central Bedfordshire may need to identify up to 23,000 extra new homes up to 2035. CBC need to be convinced that other large towns can't take more houses. Central Bedfordshire population in 2015 is 264,000 and population is likely to be 310,000 by 2035. To develop the local plan for Central Bedfordshire, CBC want to start community planning. What is Community Planning? Community planning provides opportunities for Town and Parish Councils and local residents to input information on their area that will help shape the Local Plan. Through workshops, Central Bedfordshire will be able to find out the opinion of local people for a particular area on subjects that are important to them and collect this important information within a Community Plan. Central Bedfordshire Council has setup fifteen grouped areas. Potton has been put in the same group as Sutton, Wrestlingworth and Eyeworth. Community Plan evidence can be used in the Neighbourhood Plan. The Community Plan is to start in October 2016.

	Community infrastructure – TBA Members discussed about a target date for completion of the evidence, December 2016 had been suggested. Chairman advised he would ask for volunteers to join the above sub-groups.
12	Future community events – planning The Chairman advised it has been suggested that we seek input from the community on a different evidence based topic at our next community events and the sub-groups could therefore decide on questions / feedback that will highlight strengths and issues in each topic area.
